Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Developmental League?

This league is designed to provide athletes who are not yet ready to compete on travel club basketball teams an opportunity to develop and work toward their understanding of the game and elevate skill level in an educational, skill driven environment that includes a 3v3 competition component through scheduled games. This is also ideal for any families with multi-sport athletes who want to stay in the gym working on their skills.

Do players need to try out for this league?

Athletes who attend tryouts may be referred to this program instead of a select team. Athletes that do not attend a tryout may still register for this program. (Check Select Team FAQ document to find differences)

How long does the season run?

The season will run from May through mid-July.

What does the season look like?

Players will have 2 development sessions weekly working on skills and drills to build a better understanding of situations and concepts. Players will also have 3 sessions of 3v3 play where they will be placed on a team with other players and compete in 3v3 games. *3v3 session dates to be announced.

What is the cost?

The cost for the entire summer is $495 (plus cost of uniform). All players in the Select and Developmental Programs must have the official SSA program uniform (Black/White Puma Uniform). Note: The uniform is the same as 2024 and can be work for multiple years

Parents will not have any travel or tournament expenses in this program.
